Auditel is the premier cost and purchase management specialist in the UK and Ireland. We manage the full spectrum of business expenditure. Our vast knowledge bank, buying power and the wide-ranging, top-level experience of our network of cost and purchase management specialists, leave us perfectly placed to lower all the costs of doing business.

Auditel achieved a 31% saving on Office Supplies and Consumables for BEN Motor and Allied Trades Benevolent Fund.

"So far Auditel have found us substantial savings. These extra funds will make a real difference to the people we help. I have every confidence in the Auditel service and look forward to even more savings in the future."

- Derek Lowe, Financial Controller at BEN

farnham maltings

Auditel have lowered Farnham Maltings' business costs in a number of different areas, including 26% on telecommunications, 23% on merchant card fees and 47% on postage.

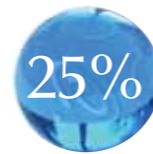

"I see Auditel as another member of my management team and we've got a stream of projects that will keep them busy this year. Auditel offers us lots of guidance and experience and altogether I see the experience as being 100% positive. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Auditel to any business, large or small."

- Chris Maddocks, General Manager of Farnham Maltings

Auditel have saved Whiting & Partners 25% on office supplies to date

"When we saw the excellent results that Auditel were able to achieve for us, we quickly realised that they could be a very valuable service for our clients too. We're delighted to be working with Auditel and are proud to have added another innovative service to our portfolio."

- Michael Caddock, Managing Partner at Whiting & Partners

Auditel has many years' experience managing a broad range of business expenditure which includes costs as diverse as contract cleaning, office supplies, general waste, merchant cards and postage.

With over 3,000 clients in the UK and Ireland, our customer base is equally diverse and ranges from small businesses to global brands such as Pizza Express, YMCA and Oxford University. Each of these businesses represents a fresh challenge and each demands a bespoke solution.

Our vast knowledge bank, which documents every case history since Auditel was established in 1994; strong, but independent, supplier relationships; over 170 Auditel Consultants pooling their industry knowledge and experience, as well as ongoing training from a dedicated support team, ensures that, with our unique Total Cost of Purchase® approach, we are perfectly placed to provide cost and purchase management services across a broad spectrum of business expenditure, to organisations of all types and sizes.

At Auditel, we become an outsourced member of a client's management team and take great pride in finding the best possible cost and purchase management solutions for them: solutions that are not simply quick, short-term wins, but are both ethical and sustainable.

For all our clients though, large or small, our goal remains the same - to lower the cost of doing business.

Auditel's Business Health Check

Auditel's Business Health Check is an examination of all your business expenditure using our unique Total Cost of Purchase®. It takes into account both the direct and indirect costs associated with making effective cost management decisions. This service, coupled with our performance-driven contingency fee model means that our service can be totally self-funding. There are no additional up-front fees, no hidden charges and no extras - so even if you think you have your costs under control, it wouldn't hurt to book an Auditel Business Health Check. Just to be sure.
